The General Terms & Conditions shall not apply to the operations falling with the scope of exceptions under art. 2, par. 1 of LPSPS.
- 1.2. According to the legislation in force, the Bank applies measures for preventing the use of the financial system for money laundering purposes and the Customer is obliged to comply with the procedures required by the Bank, to provide data and to assist in execution of the provisions against money laundering.
- 1.3. The general terms and conditions govern the relations between payment service users who are not considered as "Consumers" according to § 1, art. 40 in AP of the LPSPS (hereinafter referred to as "Customers") and the Bank in connection with the payment services provided and shall be an integral part of the Framework Agreement for the provision of payment services or any other individual agreement for the provision of payment services concluded between them (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Contract").
Payment Service Users according to the present General Terms and Conditions are as follows:
 - 1.3.1. Persons registered under Bulgarian or foreign legislation and carrying out business activity on a legal basis as traders within the meaning of the Commerce Act; foreign persons carrying out commercial activity through a branch or commercial representation and in other ways permitted by law;
 - 1.3.2. Self-employed persons;
 - 1.3.3. Public organizations - non-profit organizations registered as independent legal entities;
 - 1.3.4. Subsidiaries of the persons under Art. 1.3.1 and Art. 1.3.3 where this is provided for in law or internal acts.

II. PAYMENT ACCOUNTS

- 2.1 Subject to the applicable legislation and in accordance with its internal rules and procedures, the Bank shall open and maintain payment accounts in local and foreign currency of individuals or legal entities who are not considered as consumers according to § 1, art. 40 in AP of the LPSPS. The payment accounts maintained by the Bank are used for execution of payment transactions and for holding of funds. The Bank may also maintain other types of money-holding accounts that are served under the conditions specified in an Agreement.

2.2 Opening of payment accounts

- 2.2.1. Each payment account is opened by the Client, through its legal representatives or through their proxies with a notarised power of attorney in which the Client has explicitly and exhaustively described the type and volume of actions the proxy has the right to carry out on his behalf and on his account. The bank allows acceptance of power of attorneys without notarization in case that they are submitted in the approved standard template form of TBI Bank EAD and they are signed in front of a bank employee.
- 2.2.2. For the opening of an account of foreign legal entities it is necessary to submit to the Bank an original of certificate of current status issued not earlier than the previous three months, a copy of a certificate for registration, Memorandum / Articles of association of the company, identity card (passport) of the representative of the company. For the opening of an account of local legal entities, the Bank performs an excerpt from the respective register for the current status of the entities and presents the documents, related to the companies' court registration for verification by their legal representatives or by persons, authorized by them. The Bank may also require other documents from the Client that are necessary in connection with the specific conditions for opening the payment account, for identification of the Client and/or its beneficial owners, or the persons with disposing rights, as well as in relation to the requirements of the effective legislation and internal rules of the Bank.
- 2.2.3. The Client shall immediately notify the Bank in writing (personally at a Bank office or via e-mail: sme_support@tbibank.bg) of any circumstances occurring relevant to his / her identification and for the identification of its representatives and proxies and / or the conduct of their payment accounts (changes in the articles of incorporation/incorporation act/other similar document of the client, changes in the trade registration data, withdrawal of proxy, death of proxy, invalidation of the client's legal entity, loss, theft or destruction of an identity document and / or power of attorney, etc.). Changes in the documents submitted by the Client / representative / proxy shall have effect vis-à-vis the Bank only from the moment the Bank has been notified thereof by the Client or other authorised person.
- 2.2.4. The Bank shall refuse the opening of the payment account if the Client has not submitted the documents under Art. 2.2.1. and Art. 2.2.2.

2.3.10 Specific accounts are opened at the request of the Client and / or syndic of the Client for keeping money of persons for which bankruptcy proceedings. Only the money which are part of the bankruptcy estate are kept on the specific account. Disposal of funds on the specific account and with the account itself shall be effected in accordance with the legal provisions by the legal representative of the Client and / or the syndic of the Client in accordance with the entry in the Trade Register.

2.3.11 Other types of payment accounts, which are serviced under terms and conditions of the individual contract and according to the effective legislation.

2.4 Closing payment accounts

2.4.1 A current account shall be closed on the order of the Client, a person authorised by him, his legal representative, his successors or heirs or the person who opened the account for his benefit, in the event that the Client did not approve the opening of the account of his/her name - on the day of receipt of the Request for account closure according to the Bank's template, deposited with the Bank by the person requesting the closure.

2.4.2 A deposit account shall be closed by the Customer, his authorised representative, his legal representative, his successors or heirs or the person who opened the account in his favour without penalty in accrued interest on the date specified in the Deposit Agreement. If this date falls on a non-working day, the closure shall take place on the first working day following the expiry date. Upon early termination of the account (termination of the deposit) by the Client or in case of forced execution, the Bank shall pay the amount for the time of its actual stay with the interest rate applicable to a current account according to the Interest Rate Bulletin. Upon closing a deposit account in foreign currency, the amount less than the smallest denomination in the respective foreign currency is paid in BGN equivalent at the Bank's buy rate.

2.4.3 In all cases payment accounts, opened according to these general terms and conditions, shall be closed upon termination of the Contract under the terms and conditions agreed in it. Where applicable, from the termination of the Agreement until the closure of the payment account, the Customer shall not be entitled to perform payment transactions from this payment account, except one single operation, for the purpose of closing the payment account;

2.4.4 The Bank unilaterally terminates a Contract and closes the payment account in case the Client fails to comply with these General Terms or the Contract.

2.4.5 The payment account shall be closed at the death of a Client, if it is an entity according to art. 1.3.2., and the Bank shall be notified thereof in writing. The notification can be made by any person in any office of the Bank and should be accompanied by the death certificate.

2.4.5.1. The amounts on the accounts of the deceased Client shall be paid to the heirs upon completion of a request according to the Bank's template, signed by the heirs or their proxy, and upon submission of a death certificate, an inheritance certificate / declared will (if any), a certificate from the municipality of the last domicile of the deceased that the amounts in the accounts have been declared and the inheritance tax is paid, when legally owed, a certificate from the NSSI territorial division, in which the last month for which the deceased was entitled pension, as well as the month to which a pension has been transferred to the account of the account holder (in case the account has received a pension). The amount transferred, relating to the time after the month in which the holder died, shall be recovered ex officio by the bank to the NSSI. If necessary, as in any inheritance with an international element, including submission of a European Certificate of Inheritance, the Bank may request the submission by the heirs of other documents, before payment of the amount.

2.4.5.2. If the heirs are several, they should appear together to pay the inheritance shares or authorise a person with an explicit notarised power of attorney representing them to the bank to receive their stakes. The Bank is not responsible for the distribution of the stakes.

2.4.5.3. When an heir appears to pay sums from legator's accounts separately from the other heirs, the Bank may refuse to make a calculation and pay only his/her inheritance.

2.4.5.4. In order to pay sums from the inheritance of a minor or minor heir, a permission is submitted by the district court.

2.4.5.5. In the event of a declared will, payment is made in accordance with the terms of the testamentary prescription.

2.4.5.6. Disputes between heirs for amounts on the account shall be non-opposable to the Bank and shall be settled in accordance with the law. The Bank shall not be liable for payments made in accordance with the statutory order in execution of orders by persons authorised to execute them until the day of receipt of a written notification of the death of the Client. Under these hypotheses, the disputed heirs may impose distraint on the account only by submitting a distraint from the competent judicial authority to the Bank.

2.4.5.7. After payment of the amount from the account (s) to the heirs of the Customer, the account is closed.

2.4.5.8. The Bank may impose additional conditions before allowing the disposal of the client's accounts.

2.4.6 In the event of termination or transformation of a Client - legal entity, the assets in its Bank accounts shall be paid to his / her legal successors upon submission of the necessary documents for their identification and legitimacy. The Bank shall not be liable for payments made in accordance with the established procedure until the receipt of a notification confirmed by documents required by the legislation in force for the termination or transformation of the Client.

2.4.7 The cumulative account is closed after: 1) registration of the company or the increase of the capital in the Trade Register certified by a reference from the Trade Register at the Registry Agency; or 2) in case of termination of the company registration procedure or an increase in capital certified by a memorandum of the meeting of the founders / owners, respectively the shareholders, containing the decision to terminate the procedure or any other relevant document. In this case, the Bank transfers to the depositors the full deposited funds in the currency in which they were made at the time of the deposit; or 3) in other cases provided for by law.

2.4.8 A specific account is closed after submission to the Bank by the Client - holder of: 1) a copy of the decision of the respective District Court (bankruptcy court) certifying the deletion of the company from the Trade Register and a certificate issued by the competent registration authority certifying the circumstances of this point; or 2) a copy of a court decision declaring termination of bankruptcy proceedings and a certificate issued by the competent registry authority certifying the circumstances under this point; or 3) an explicit written order of the Client - holder, upon submission of a permit by the respective District Court (the bankruptcy court).

2.4.9 A Liquidation account shall be closed upon submission of: 1) a certificate issued by the competent registry authority certifying the deletion of the Client - holder from the Trade Register, under a prerequisite that there are no unallocated funds in the liquidation account; or 2) a certificate issued by the competent registration authority certifying the termination of liquidation proceedings.

2.4.10 The Bank shall refuse to close a Bank Account if a distraint is imposed on it. Closure of the account will be executed after the completion of the enforcement proceedings, with due removal of the distraint by the body that imposed it;

2.4.11 In all cases of closure of a payment account, when it is available, the amount shall be retained by the Bank until it is received by the Client and no interest is charged thereon but the Bank may collect the debts owed to it keeping fees and commissions, in accordance with the Tariff.

2.4.12 The client owes fees and commissions for the payment services performed until the payment account is closed as the paid fees and commissions are not refundable.

2.4.13 Bank at its discretion has right to request other documents and information for the purposes of the payment account closure.

2.5 Prevention and control

2.5.1. The Bank does not open or keep payment accounts, respectively does not accept payments and does not execute ordered operations on and from Bank Accounts, intended to raise amounts to unsubscribed persons, unsolicited commercial messages and offers whose conditions permit the counter service not to be fulfilled and/or are based on a gambling, and / or aiming at the use of unfair, and / or misleading, aggressive, unsubstantiated commercial practices and lawful actions and results and / or money laundering and / or financing of terrorism and / or realisation of forms of fraud and abuse of confidence of TBI Bank EAD, as a servicing bank and / or endanger the reputation of the Bank.

2.5.2. The Bank does not execute operations ordered by Customers in favour of persons who are subject to payment sanctions imposed in accordance with the officially adopted order and rules, respectively, where internal or international sanctions / prohibitions for payments are imposed, the execution of which violates the adopted restrictions, the consequences of the execution of such operations under the restrictive regulation remain entirely at risk, responsibility and expense of the ordering Customer.

2.5.3. In the event of a finding of violation of the prohibitions for carrying out the operations referred to in Art. 2.5.1 and 2.5.2 above as a result of the fault of the Client, the Bank shall immediately block his/her accounts with it for disposals (receipt and / or ordering) of payments. Incoming transfers are returned to the ordering party through the payer's Payment Service Provider / bank. Payment orders are not accepted for execution. The Bank shall have the right to collect the fees and commissions from the blocked Bank Accounts on their keeping until it has received from the Client the order for the closure of its payment accounts with the Bank showing its account with another bank and / or Payment service provider under which to take the residual balance.

2.5.4. The Bank shall notify the Customer as a holder of the breach of the prohibitions established in these General Terms and Conditions for the operation of its payment accounts (accepting and ordering payments through ineligible payment transactions) and blocking such accounts with it in accordance with the provisions of Art. 2.5.3, with an extract from the blocked payment accounts provided to him on the channel requested by the Client for receiving information about the status of its payment accounts.

2.5.5. The Client is obliged within three days from the date of the notification under Art. 2.5.4 to order the closure of its Bank Accounts with the Bank, indicating where to be transferred the balance on them, after deducting the debts owed to the Bank by the Customer. In the event of a distraint to a Bank Account, the closure of the account will be executed after the completion of the enforcement proceedings, with the proper removal of the distraint by the body that has imposed it, and the available balance after the execution of the distraint will be transferred to the account, indicated by the Customer, under the condition that the balance remains unchanged.

2.5.6. Any actions and / or omissions of the Customer related to the refusal to provide, inadvertently / incompletely or delay providing information and / or documents requested by the Bank, regarding its business, trade partners, beneficial owner or other data or documents, that are necessary and required by the Bank in connection with the determination of the Client's risk profile, its reputation and its or its beneficial owner identification represents a default of the Client's side of these General Terms and Conditions, in which case the Bank has the right to terminate the relations established with the Client under the terms and conditions of Art. 2.4.4.

2.6 Access to payment accounts with the Bank for the purposes of payment initiation and account information services

2.6.1. When the Client's payment account may be accessed online, the client has the right to provide access to his/her payment account and information held within to Third Party Providers - Payment Initiation Service Providers (PISP) and Account Information Service Providers (AISP)

2.6.2. Payment services via payment initiation service providers (PISP) and Account information service providers (AISP) may be used only by the titular account holder

2.6.3. The Bank is not a party to the contract between the Client and the respective AISP / PISP. The Client is solely responsible for the choice of AISP / PISP, to determine the conditions under which the respective providers will provide such services, and to ensure that they comply with their respective agreements between the Bank and the Client relating to those services. In particular, the Bank will accept incoming payment orders related to the Client's payment account submitted via PISP and Client's payment account information requests submitted via AISP provided that the Bank succeeds in identifying the Client. The Bank is not responsible for the provision by the Client of AISP / PISP of its personalized means of access to the payment account with the Bank. A Payment Information Provider (AISP) shall not be entitled to place orders for execution of payment transactions from a Client's payment account with the Bank.

2.6.4. The client must take reasonable care in the selection and use of AISP or PISP.

2.6.5. The Bank may refuse access to PISP or AISP for objectively substantiated and duly proven reasons related to unauthorized or fraudulent access to the Client's accounts with the Bank. In such cases, unless prohibited by applicable legislation, the Bank shall inform the Client that PISP / AISP's access to his/her account or information in the Bank has been denied, as well as the relevant reasons for the refusal. The Client agrees that the Bank may submit reports to regulatory and other authorities about the PISP or AISP denied access, and that such reports may contain confidential information about the Client.

III. INFORMATION FOR THE PROVISION OF PAYMENT SERVICES

Information provided by the client

3.1. In order to ensure the correct execution of payment orders, prior to the execution of any payment orders, the Client shall provide to the Bank with:

3.1.1. the information required in the standard payment order forms. For the exact identification of the recipient, IBAN of the beneficiary's bank account, BIC or other unique identifier of the recipient's account (for countries outside the European Community) is required;

- 3.1.2. duly completed declarations and other documents in accordance with the Bulgarian legislation in force;
- 3.1.3. documents in compliance with the requirements of the Law on Measures against Money Laundering and the Law on the Measures against Financing of Terrorism related to identification of the Client and its beneficial owners, legal representatives or those by proxy or heirs.
- 3.2. Amendments to the documents and information provided by the Client to the Bank upon signature of the Contract shall have effect vis-à-vis the Bank only from the moment when the Bank has been notified thereof in writing by the Customer or by a duly authorised person. The bank may require additional documents to open and maintain a payment account, for which it shall notify in advance the person who opens the account. The Bank shall designate any open account with a unique identifier (IBAN) which the Customer undertakes to provide for each payment order.
- 3.3. When dealing with funds on the account and / or the account itself by a proxy, he / she must identify himself / herself with the identity document described in a notarised power of attorney or in the template form of the Bank, completed with the Client-Account holder. It should be clear from the text of the notarised power of attorney that the Client-Account holder gives representative and / or authorization power to the proxy before the commercial banks on the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria or expressly to TBI Bank EAD, as well as clearly and exhaustively specify the scope of representative rights of the proxy to dispose of amounts on the account and / or with the account itself.
- 3.4. Operations by a re-authorised person on an already opened account may be performed only in the event that both the re-authorisation and the initial authorisation are objectified in notarised power of attorney and meet the requirements of Art. 3.3.
- 3.5. The Bank has the right to refuse to accept a power of attorney that does not meet the requirements set out in Art. 3.3. The Bank may refuse to open an account through a proxy, even if the power of attorney meets the requirements of Art. 3.3 but the same was issued later than 12 months from the date of its first submission to the Bank, respectively the Bank may refuse to execute a payment order performed by a proxy, even if the power of attorney meets the requirements of Art. 3.3, but it was issued later than 36 months from the date of submission of the relevant order by the proxy.
- 3.6. The bank checks the submitted documents, incl. power of attorneys and signatures on them from outside, and shall not be liable for any damages caused by the execution of payment transactions, including for cash withdrawals based on regular documents from outside, which are untrue or fraudulent.
- 3.7. Changes in the powers of attorney presented to the Bank, including their withdrawal, shall have effect vis-à-vis the Bank from the moment it has been notified in writing of the change made by the Account Holder by depositing the documents with the Bank.
- 3.8. The Bank accepts proxies for signing the contract on behalf of the Account holder, and for receiving of payment instrument (individualising characteristics) after issuance / renewal by the Bank, only in case that the power of attorney contains an explicit provision for such action. The bank may refuse to service a proxy if there is any doubt that he will use the payment instrument.
- 3.9. When using internet banking by proxy with a notarised authorisation from the account holder, the Bank shall provide to him a separate username and password with which to access the payment account of the legal representative of the account holder who mandated him.
- 3.10. Powers of attorney issued in a foreign country shall be submitted to the Bank certified in a Bulgarian embassy or consulate in the respective country or legalised (if necessary) accompanied by an Apostille (if necessary) and translated into Bulgarian by a sworn translator. Translation in Bulgarian is not required in case the submitted certified power of attorney is prepared in accordance with a template form of the Bank.
- 3.11. The Bank shall terminate the payment of proxy amounts when it is notified in writing that it has been terminated or withdrawn. The power of attorney shall also be terminated in the event of the death of the legal representative of the holder or the authorized person, the change of the manager of the company, the termination of the legal entity or the expiry of the power of attorney, if stated, the Bank shall not be liable when it has not been timely notified in writing of the withdrawal or termination of the authorisation.

Information provided by the Bank

- 3.12. In order to reflect the payment transactions on the Client's account, the Bank shall draw up an Account Statement with the information under Art. 65, para 1 and Art. 66, para. 1 of the LPSPS and makes it available to the Client or his / her attorney for free once a month in an office of the Bank or via the e-mail address provided by the client, and more than once a month - in a manner explicitly indicated by the Client and against a fee according to the Tariff of the Bank. No account statement is issued for a period in which there is no movement on the account. Upon request, the client may receive a printout of each accounting document that results in a change in balance on a payment account. The order and manner of providing the information under this Article is given in Section VII below.
- 3.13. The client is entitled on request to receive from the Payment Service Provider information about the payment transactions made. The information for the current year is provided to the User free of charge in hard copy at the office of the Payment Services Provider and / or also free of charge on the Internet site of the Provider - www.tbibank.bg (for Customers using Internet banking) and / or also free of charge by e-mail to the Customer's e-mail address (for customers who wish to receive the information in this way).

IV. AUTHORISATION OF PAYMENT OPERATIONS BY THE CUSTOMER

- 4.1. A payment operation shall be deemed authorised as from the moment the Customer (Payer) has:
 - 4.1.1. Filed a hardcopy signed payment order on execution of a payment operation or has given his consent in writing at an office of the Bank (in the case of direct debit) or remotely;
 - 4.1.2. Filed a payment order or given his consent via the Internet banking channel respecting the specific requirements on using this channel;

 - 4.1.3. The Customer has given his explicit consent and/or instructed the Bank to execute the payment operation under another agreement in writing or a document signed between the Bank and the Customer.
- 4.2. The Bank shall execute payment operations under the order and conditions of the present General Terms and Conditions if authorised by the Customer. Where no consent is given the payment operation shall be deemed unauthorised. The Customer shall give his payment orders or consent prior execution of the payment operation. The Bank shall only execute the payment operations ordered by the Customer if the following conditions are simultaneously met:
 - 4.2.1. The operation has been ordered by the Customer or a person authorised by him in accordance with the provisions of the present General Terms & Conditions, or the Bank has obtained the Customer's consent to the respective payment operation in the due manner;
 - 4.2.2. The Customer has a free balance on his account with the Bank sufficient for execution of the respective payment operation and for covering the related Bank's fees and commissions;
 - 4.2.3. The Customer has presented to the Bank the necessary documents for execution of the respective payment operation required by a regulatory act or any other documents required by the Bank to execute the respective operation;
- 4.3. The Bank may debit the Customer's account without his consent in the following cases:
 - 4.3.1. for recovering the fees, costs and commissions on the bank services rendered by/via the Bank due by the Customer;
 - 4.3.2. for correction of manifest technical errors in the entries to the Customer's account;

- 4.3.3. in the event of distraint imposed by a competent body on the Customer's receivables from bank accounts opened with the Bank;
- 4.3.4. in the event of statutory enforcement;
- 4.3.5. for payment under a direct debit order, approved in advance by the Customer;
- 4.3.6. for ex officio collection by the Bank which the Customer has consented to in advance;
- 4.3.7. in any other cases permitted by the law.
- 4.4. The Bank shall not execute partial transfers under individual payment orders or direct debit orders. Partial payments may only be made in the event of statutory enforcement and in the case of ex officio collection by the Bank.
- 4.5. The Customer may withdraw his order on or consent to execution of a payment operation at any time, but not later than the moment the payment operation has become irrevocable within the meaning of art. 5.8 below.
- 4.6. The Bank may set limits for certain operations in accordance with the regulatory acts and its security rules published on the Bank's Internet page.
- 4.7. The Customer shall notify the Bank without unreasonable delay promptly after he has become aware of an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment operation, but not later than 13 months as from the date of debiting of his account. The Customer shall be deemed being aware of an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment operation upon receipt of the Customer's correspondence on the respective payment operation under the order and in the manner specified in Section VII below at the latest. The Bank shall only correct the payment operation if the Customer has notified it in the due manner.

V. EXECUTION OF PAYMENT OPERATIONS

- 5.1 The moment of receipt of the payment order is the moment when the Bank receives the payment order transmitted directly by the Client as a payer or indirectly by or through the recipient in the order and manner specified in these General Terms and Conditions. In the event that the time of receipt is not a business day for the Bank, the payment order shall be deemed to have been received on the next business day.  - 6) orders with the same day value day "SAME" for transfers other than EUR and USD submitted after 10:00 on business days are executed on the same day with a value date the next business day;
 - 7) orders for transfer of all currencies other than EUR and USD with value date "SPOT" (two business days) and "TOM" (next business day) submitted up to 16:30 on working days shall be executed on the same day with the respective one selected by customer value date;
 - 8) orders for transfer of all currencies other than EUR and USD with value date "SPOT" (two business days) and "TOM" (next working day) submitted after 16:30 on business days shall be executed on the next business day with the respective selected by customer value date;
 - 9) orders requiring currency exchange ordered after 15:00 shall be executed on the next business day with the relevant value date chosen by the client.
- 5.2 When the Client who submits a payment order and the Bank agree that the payment order is to be executed on a certain day or on the day following the expiration of a certain period or on the day on which the payer provides the Bank with the necessary funds to execute the order, for a moment receipt of the payment order is considered the agreed day, and if that day is not working for the Bank - the next business day.
- 5.3 Upon receiving of funds on payment accounts, the Bank shall set the value date and make available to the payee's payment account the amount of the payment transaction after receipt of the funds from the respective payment service provider of the payer. The value date for crediting the payee's payment account is no later than the business day on which the Bank's account is credited with the amount of the payment transaction.
- 5.4 When the payment accounts of the payer and the payee are opened in the Bank, the value date of the payee's payment account is the same business day.
- 5.5 When executing a direct debit order, the Bank shall transmit the payment order to the payers payment service provider on the same business day on which the payment order was received or at least the next day, but so that the settlement could be done on the agreed date.
- 5.6 Where the recipient does not have a payment account with the Bank, the last shall make available to it the funds received within the specified time limits.
- 5.7 When cash is deposited by a user on a payment account with the Bank in the currency in which the respective payment account is opened, the Bank shall make the amount available and set the value date immediately after receipt of the funds.

Refusal of execution a payment order

5.8 The Bank shall have the right to refuse to execute the payment transaction requested by the Client in the following cases: 1) the payment order received by the Bank does not contain all required standard requisites necessary for the execution of the payment transaction, i.e. there is missing, incomplete or inaccurate data; 2) The client has not provided the necessary funds to execute the order; 3) if there are restrictions under the current legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria, the applicable rules for the execution of the payment transaction, the present General Terms, the court / arbitration decision or the administrative act; 4) upon other terms and conditions for maintenance of the account agreed between the Client and the Bank.

5.8.1. Where the Bank refuses to execute the payment order, its denial, if possible, the reasons for it and the procedure for correcting the factual errors leading to the denial shall be communicated to the Client, unless there is a prohibition to provide such information under another law or act of the European Union.

5.8.2. The Bank shall provide or make available to the Client the notification under Art. 5.8.1 in due time, in the manner described in Section VII below, and within the deadlines for execution of payment operations in BGN, EUR and payment transactions related to a one-off exchange between BGN and EUR, provided that the exchange takes place in The Republic of Bulgaria as well as in cases of cross-border payment transactions when the payment transaction is made in euro.

5.8.3. When all the conditions set forth in these General Terms and Conditions are met, the Bank may not refuse to execute a payment order authorised by the Client, unless there is a limitation for the execution of the order under a statutory instrument. For cross-border transfers as well as for payments between residents and non-residents on the territory of the country, all documents required under the currency legislation shall be provided.

5.8.4. The Bank has the right to refuse execution of a payment order and in the cases of Art. 2.5 above.

Irrevocability of the payment order

5.9 As a payer, the customer cannot cancel the payment order after receiving it from the Bank. Where the payment transaction is executed via a PISP, the payer may not cancel the payment order after he has authorised the PISP to initiate the operation or after having given its consent to the execution of the payment transaction in favour of the payee.

5.9.1. A payment order accepted by the Bank may be cancelled by the Customer by written notice to the Bank, including via the Internet Banking Channel, in the following cases:

- 1) for a credit transfer for a certain day - at the latest by the end of the business day preceding the agreed day of execution;
- 2) for direct debit - at the latest by the end of the business day preceding the agreed day of debiting the Customer's account.

5.9.2. Upon expiry of the established time limits, but not later than the crediting the payee's account, the payment order may be cancelled only by agreement between the Client and the Bank, and upon direct debit the consent of the recipient is also required.

5.9.3. The Bank has the right to charge a fee for cancellation of the payment order, if such is provided in the Tariff of Fees and Commissions of the Bank.

Official corrective transfer

5.10. The Bank has the right to perform a corrective transfer by debiting the payment account of the Client without prior consent or order of the Client in the order and within the terms provided in Art. 96 of the LPSPS. The official corrective transfer is to the extent that the payment account is reimbursed in the state in which it would be before the execution of the incorrectly executed payment transaction.

VI. FEES, COMMISSIONS, INTEREST RATES AND EXCHANGE RATES

6.1. For the payment services and operations performed, the Bank collects from the Client, respectively the Client is obliged to pay to the Bank fees and commissions in accordance with the Tariff of Fees and Commissions for Legal entities of the Bank (the Tariff) in force at the date of collection of the fees and commissions the date of execution of the payment transaction for which they are due, and the Bank and the Client may negotiate other fees and commissions. The Bank reserves the right to change the Tariff, as the changes take effect for the Client under the terms and conditions of these General Terms and Conditions.

6.2. The Bank has the right to collect ex officio from the Client's accounts the due, according to the account type, receivables for opening, keeping, maintaining and closing an account, servicing operations, as well as unduly received amounts in case of initial lack of reason, including as a result of fraud and / or wrong instructions and / or bank technical errors. In the absence of funds on the respective account, the Bank shall collect the required receivables from the balance on any other account of the Client with it, for which upon signing the Contract for Account the Client shall give his/her explicit written consent for direct debit in favour of the Bank from accounts he/she/it holds.

6.2.1. In the event that the Customer has an account in a currency other than the currency of his obligation to the Bank, the latter shall collect his claim from this account on the basis of the official buy / sale rates announced by the Bank on the day of the operation and the Bank's Tariff;

6.2.2. The Bank reserves the right to charge the bill automatically for the payment of additional costs incurred, including the foreign banks in connection with the execution of the orders of the Client, respectively a proxy;

6.2.3. 6.2.4. If after the actions under the preceding item for two consecutive months, which has a legal effect and a consequence of a notice, no funds are deposited in the account and the Bank cannot collect the due amounts and / or the fees for servicing the accounts, it shall have the right unilaterally to terminate the Bank Account Agreement and to close the account without further notice to the Customer.

6.3. In the case of payment transactions within the territory of the European Economic Area, the payer pays the fees collected by his payment service provider and the payee pays the fees collected by its payment service provider, i.e. for these payment transactions, the Bank will execute payment orders with a SHA (shared) principle.

6.4. The customer may order the transfer outside the territory of the European Economic Area by choosing one of all eligible options; (1) SHA (Shared Taxes); (2) OUR (all charges are for the ordering party) or (3) BEN (all fees are for the recipient).

6.5. Interest rates with which the Bank accrues funds to customers on payment accounts are determined by the relevant account contract and by the Interest Rate Bulletin. Disbursement and closure of accounts by the Client – Account holder are made in every office of the Bank, except for the accounts with special regime and purpose, the ordering of which is made in the office in which they are opened. Except as provided in these General Terms and Conditions, any payment account may be terminated under the terms and conditions of the relevant account agreement. The Bank reserves the right to change interest rates in the Interest Rate Bulletin, and the changes take effect for the Client under the terms and conditions of these General Terms and Conditions.

6.6. When exchanging currency, the Bank shall apply the exchange rate buy or sell announced by the Bank in the Bank's cash desk and on its website www.tbibank.bg. The Bank and the Client may negotiate other exchange rates.

- 6.7. Upon receiving a transfer in a currency other than the one in which the Customer's account is opened, he/she agrees that the Bank will converse the amount received in the currency of the account ex officio, in which case the Bank shall apply its exchange rate at the time of the conversion. The Bank and the Client may negotiate other exchange rates.

VII. PROVIDING OF INFORMATION AND CORRESPONDENCE

- 7.1. A basic way of providing information on a durable medium to all Clients is the publication of the relevant documents on the Bank's website www.tbibank.bg and the client has the obligation to regularly inform itself about the Bank's current payment terms from the electronic page or in the offices of the Bank. IX. RESPONSIBILITY

- 9.1. The Bank shall remit the amount of the payment operation in full, without deducting any charges thereon, except for the cases where the originator has indicated that the charges are at the expense of the payee, with the BEN option. The Bank shall not effect partial transfers under individual payment orders or direct debit orders. The Bank in its capacity of beneficiary's bank may, prior crediting the beneficiary customer's account, deduct from the transferred amount the charges due by the Customer in accordance with its Tariff. In this case the value of the payment operation shall be stated in the information provided to the Customer separately from the amount of charges deducted by the Bank.
- 9.2. Where a payment order has been executed in accordance with the unique identifier, such order shall be deemed accurately executed as regards the beneficiary indicated by the unique identifier. The Bank shall not be liable for non-execution or inaccurate execution of the payment operation in the event of inaccurate unique identifier provided by the Customer. In this case the Bank is obliged to undertake within the scope of the due care to make every effort to recover the amount of the payment operation.
- 9.3. In the event of non-execution of a payment operation due to providing of an invalid unique identifier, the Bank of the Customer in his capacity of ordering party shall refund the amount of the payment operation to the Customer's account on the next business day. Where the Customer has provided an inaccurate or invalid unique identifier, the Bank shall make every effort within the scope of the due care to recover the amount of the payment operation, for which the client owes the Bank fee pursuant to the Tariff in force at that time.
- 9.4. In the event that the reimbursement under Art. 9.3 is not possible, the Bank shall, upon written request from the Client, provide him with all information available to him regarding the refund.
- 9.5. When the Customer has submitted a payment order to the Bank as a payer, the Bank shall be liable to the Customer for the exact execution of the payment transaction unless it proves to the Customer or to the payee's payment service provider that the payee's payment service provider has received the amount of the payment transaction within the statutory period, in which case the payee's payment service provider is liable to the payee for the exact execution of the payment transaction and immediately provides the payee Assignment of the recipient the amount of the payment transaction and, where applicable, credits the payee's payment account with the corresponding amount. The Bank is liable to the Customer as the payer for the correct execution of the payment transaction and promptly reimburses to the Customer the amount of the outstanding or inaccurate payment transaction and, where applicable, refunds the debited payment account in the condition it would have been if the payment transaction had not been incorrectly executed as the Customer's payment account is credited with a value date no later than the date when the account was debited with the amount of the payment transaction. In the event of a default or inaccurate payment transaction ordered by the Client as a payer, the Bank shall, upon request, take action within the due diligence to track the payment transaction and notify the Client of the outcome.
- 9.6. When the payment order is submitted by or through the Customer as the recipient, the Bank shall be liable to the Customer for the accurate transmission of the payment order to the payment service provider of the payer within a time limit allowing for settlement at the agreed date. In this case, the Bank shall immediately transmit the respective payment order to the payer's payment service provider. In the event of delayed transmission of the payment order, the value date of crediting of the payment account of the Client with the amount of the transaction shall be no later than the date on which the amount would have been credited if the transaction was executed without delay. The Bank shall be liable to the Client in the capacity of the recipient for the execution of the payment transaction and shall make available to the Client the amount of the payment transaction immediately after the account has been credited with that amount, as the payment account of the Client shall be credited with the amount of the transaction with a value date later than the date on which the account would have been credited if the transaction had been executed correctly. In the event of a non-executed or incomplete payment transaction ordered by the Client in its capacity of a payee, the Bank shall, upon request, take action within the due diligence to track the payment transaction and notify the recipient of the outcome.
- 9.7. The Bank shall not be liable for damages and lost profits from the execution of payment transactions executed until the day of receipt of written notification of any changes or circumstances under Article 3.2 and Art. 3.7 including in cases where he has executed a payment order made by a person who has legitimated for this purpose with regular documents from outside which are false (with false content and / or non-authentic) documents and has certified his / her disposal rights on a bank / payment account, including a power of attorney on a regular basis, in cases where the representative power of the person has been terminated before the Bank has been notified in writing of the termination of the person's credentials.
- 9.8. The Bank shall not be liable under the present Section in the cases of force majeure, extraordinary or unforeseen circumstances beyond the Bank's control, the consequences whereof would inevitably occur notwithstanding the positive efforts for preventing thereof, as well as in the cases where the Bank has acted in pursuance of a statutory obligation under the law of the European Union or the legislation of the Republic of Bulgaria.

- 9.9. Where the Customer is a user in his capacity of payer he shall have the right of requiring the Bank to recover the whole amount of payment operation already executed and authorised, if it has been ordered by or through the beneficiary and if the following conditions are met:
- 9.9.1. by the time of giving an authorisation for executing the payment operation its precise amount has not been stated;
and
- 9.9.2. the value of the payment operation exceeds the value expected by the Customer in view of his previous expenses on similar operations, the provisions of the present General Terms & Conditions and any other circumstances specific of the case.
- 9.10. The request on recovering the amount shall be made by the Customer to the Bank within 56 days as from the date on which his account has been debited. At the Bank's request the Customer shall present evidence of existence of the above-mentioned conditions.
- 9.11. Within 10 working days of receipt of the request, the Bank shall reimburse the Client for the full amount of the payment transaction executed and the value date for authorising the Customer's payment account shall be no later than the date on which the account was debited with the amount of the payment transaction. The Bank may refuse to refund the amount by indicating the grounds for refusal and the authorities to which the Customer may raise an objection if it does not accept the reasons for refusal. The Bank may not refuse the refund in the cases of Art. 82, para. 7 of the LPSPS.
- 9.12. The Customer may not demand recovery of the whole amount of a payment operation already executed and authorised relying on reasons relating to an FX exchange if the exchange rate agreed with the Bank under the present General Terms & Conditions has been applied.
- 9.13. The Customer shall not be entitled to refunding of the whole amount of a payment operation already executed and authorised if he has given his consent on executing the payment operation directly to the Bank and the Bank or the beneficiary have provided or made available to the Customer any information on the forthcoming payment operation in an agreed manner at least 28 days prior the date of execution of the payment operation.
- 9.14. In the event of unauthorised or inaccurate payment transactions, the Client is obliged to inform the Bank in writing without undue delay. It is considered that the Customer has become aware of an unauthorised or inaccurate payment transaction at the latest within the time limits specified in Art. 7.5 above, but not later than 13 months from the date of debiting his account. The Bank shall not be liable for unauthorised or inaccurately executed payment transactions where it has not received notification of this within the time limits provided for in this Article.
- 9.15. The Bank shall immediately reimburse to the Customer the value of the unauthorised payment transaction and in any case no later than the end of the next business day after having noticed or been notified of the operation unless the Bank has reasonable suspicion of fraud and has notified the relevant competent authorities for this. Where necessary, the Bank shall recover the Customer's payment account in the condition it would be in if the unauthorised payment transaction had not been executed as the Customer's payment account shall be credited with a value date no later than the date on which the account was debited with the amount of the payment transaction.
- 9.16. The Customer shall sustain all losses relating to any unauthorised payment operations where he has caused such losses through fraud or default of one or more of his obligations in his capacity of user of a payment instrument, wilfully or through gross negligence. In these cases the Customer shall sustain the damages regardless of the amount thereof. Provided that the Customer has notified the Bank of any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of the payment instrument as soon as he has become aware of it, the Customer shall sustain no property damages ensuing from the use of a lost, stolen or misappropriated payment instrument except in the cases when the Customer has acted fraudulently.
- 9.17. Where the Customer claims that he has not authorised the execution of a payment operation or that the operation has been executed inaccurately, the Bank shall bear the burden of proof with respect to establishing the authenticity of the operation. The Customer shall sustain all losses relating to all unauthorised payment operations ensuing from the use of a lost, stolen or misappropriated payment instrument where the Customer has failed to preserve the personalised protection features of the instrument, regardless of their size. In this case, the Bank is not responsible for unauthorised payment transactions.
- 9.18. Where the Bank of the Customer in his capacity of payer is liable to him for a payment operation inaccurately executed where the funds have been mistakenly entered into an account with a unique identifier other than the payment order specified in the payment order or for an unauthorised payment transaction in which the recipient's account has been credited with an amount other than that specified by the payer in the payment order or where the payment transaction has been executed more than once, the Bank has the right to request from the payer's Payment Service Provider to execute a correcting transfer from the beneficiary's account to which the funds have been misdirected within 5 business days as from the date on which the Bank has recovered the amount of the inaccurately executed payment operation on the Customer's account, but not later than one month after it has been notified by him or in by another method of the inaccurately executed payment operation.
- 9.19. The Bank of the Customer in his/its capacity of beneficiary of an inaccurately executed payment operation shall effect a correcting transfer from the beneficiary's account to an account with the payer's payment service provider within 5 business days as from receipt of the demand under the previous article. Where no correcting transfer has been effected under the order and within the time-limits fixed under the previous articles, the relations between the Bank and the Customer shall be settled under the general order.
- 9.20. The Customer is fully responsible for any transactions performed by unauthorised persons as a result of unauthorised access.
- 9.21. When the payment order is submitted by the Client via a payment initiation service provider (PISP), the Bank reimburses the Client in the amount of the outstanding or incorrectly executed payment transaction and, where applicable, reimburses the obligated payment account back to the state in which it would not have been subject to an incorrectly executed payment transaction.
- 9.22. Where the payment initiation service provider is responsible for the failure, inaccuracy or delayed execution of a payment transaction, it shall promptly, at the request of the Bank, indemnify it for any damages suffered and the amounts paid as a result of the payer's refund.

X. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

Changes in the general terms and conditions

- 10.1. The Bank may at any time to amend and supplement these General Terms and Conditions by notifying the Client of the change made at least two months before the date on which they become effective by communicating to designated venues in its offices and by publishing on its website www.tbibank.bg or under the procedure for providing information under Section VII above.
